YOUR JOURNEY, DAY BY DAY

4-Day Central Mongolia Winter & Summer Tour

01

Journey to Ogii Lake

Depart from Ulaanbaatar in the morning 08.00a.m and drive toward Ogii Lake, a beautiful frozen lake in Arkhangai Province. On the way, stop to visit the ruins of Khairkhan Bukh Fortress and enjoy the peaceful winter scenery.
If available, tourists can try ice fishing. If you want to go ice fishing, tell us before the tour; it can also be skipped. In summer, a boat and fishing rod can be arranged if available.
Afterward, transfer to Kharkhorin for an overnight stay in a guesthouse apartment with a shower, electricity, and dinner.

02

Explore Kharkhorin and Relax at Tsenkher Hot Springs (outdoor)

In the morning, explore Kharkhorin (Karakorum) - the ancient capital of the Mongol Empire - and visit Erdene Zuu Monastery, one of Mongolia’s oldest Buddhist sites. After lunch, drive to the Tsenkher Hot Springs in Arkhangai Province. Enjoy bathing (outdoor) in the natural hot springs surrounded by snow-covered hills. Overnight stay at a local guesthouse near the springs.

03

Elsen Tasarkhai Sand Dunes and Camel Riding

After breakfast, return toward Kharkhorin for lunch, then continue to the Elsen Tasarkhai sand dunes, a unique area where desert, steppe, and mountain landscapes meet. Enjoy a camel riding experience and visit a nomadic herder family, where you will stay overnight in a traditional ger (yurt). There is no electricity or shower.

04

Ride a horse in the Khugnu Tarna National Reserve

After breakfast, ride a horse in Khugnu Tarna National Park. In the evening, return to Ulaanbaatar
